Remarks/Arguments:

This is a reply to the non-final rejection dated March 23, 2006.

Claims 1 - 4 have been allowed; claims 5 - 8 were rejected on obviousness-type double patenting grounds over Applicant's Patent 5502901.

We enclose a terminal disclaimer ceding the portion of the term of a patent which issues on this application that would extending beyond the expiration the '901 patent. The terminal disclaimer should overcome the double-patenting rejection and put this application in condition for allowance.

Respectfully submitted,
